ROYALTY CHAPERONE, CECI WOOD

Ceci's involvement with the festival began over 30 years ago when she married into a family that had a deep passion for Apple Blossom. Since then, she has become increasingly involved and is now spending her second year as a royalty chaperone. She is grateful for the opportunities that the festival has given her to connect with others. Outside of her involvement with the festival, Ceci works as the Volunteer Customer Service Manager at Confluence Health. Through her work, she has witnessed the positive impact that volunteering can have on both individuals and the community as a whole. In her free time, Ceci enjoys spending quality time with her family. She also enjoys reading, gardening, and traveling. Alongside her husband Greg, who is known as "The Pepsi Guy," Ceci is the proud parent of three grown children and is blessed with three incredible grandchildren.

ROYALTY CHAPERONE, JAN CROLLARD

Jan represented the Wenatchee Valley as Apple Blossom Queen in 1976. She graduated from Eastmont High School and attended Wenatchee Valley College, Central Washington University and Edmonds Community College. After 11 years in Edmonds, a job opportunity brought she and her husband Dave, (just celebrated 45 years of marriage!) back to the Wenatchee Valley. Jan worked as a Medical Assistant for Orthopedic Surgeons in Edmonds and 25 plus years in Oncology at Wenatchee Valley Clinic. They have 3 sons and 7 grandchildren. Jan enjoys staying active gardening, golfing, hiking and fishing, Most of all she enjoys spending time with family and friends. Jan looks forward to giving back to this amazing community we get to call home!

JEN MUELLER FROM ISSAOUAH, WASHINGTON

Jen Mueller is an Emmy-award winning producer and sports broadcaster. She just completed her 15th season as the Seattle Seahawks sideline radio reporter and has been a member of the Seattle Mariners television broadcast team on ROOT SPORTS for 17 years. Jen specializes in building relationships, delivering meaningful content in short bursts from the sidelines and dodging Gatorade baths during post-game interviews. Throughout her 23-year career she has been on the sidelines of NFL, NBA, MLB, NHL, WNBA and college football and basketball games. Jen was honored for her work in the industry in 2022, as the recipient of the Keith Jackson Media Excellence Award presented by the Seattle Sports Commission. In addition to her work on the sidelines, Jen is established as a business communication expert and the founder of Talk Sporty to Me. She delivers keynote presentations that motivate and inspire. Jen works with companies that want to level up their communication skills and provides actionable conversation strategies based on her locker room experiences and interviewing skills. You could say it's an outside the box approach. Jen would call it thinking outside the box scores and she's outlined her approach in the three books she's published. Jen is also the executive producer, host and creator of "I Cook, You Measure" a YouTube cooking show that's part cooking instruction, part entertainment and all about connecting over food and wine. And none of this was on her radar when she graduated from Southern Methodist University in 2000 with degrees in Broadcast Journalism and Public Policy.

NATE FULTON FROM YAKIMA, WASHINGTON

Nate is Managing Director of Specialty Practices for Marsh McLennan Agency (MMA) Northwest.
